

Press Release
October 5, 2010
For Immediate Release

Rogers & Gray Honored as Finalist for Nationwide “Best Independent Agencies To Work For”

South Dennis, MA – The results of the Insurance Journal 2010 “Best Independent Insurance Agencies to Work For” are in and Rogers & Gray Insurance Agency was named one of the 14 nationwide finalists.

The employee-driven survey, judged agencies on a number of different criteria including personal job satisfaction, overall employee benefits, flexible working hours, providing tools to help their employees grow and opinion of the agency’s principals.

“There is nothing more gratifying than receiving an honor from your employees” Chuck Robinson, President & CEO of Rogers & Gray. “We strive hard to make Rogers & Gray the place people choose to work, and the results of this survey validate this effort.”

Thousands of independent Insurance agencies were included in the survey and Rogers & Gray was named one of only 2 north east agencies honored.

Founded in 1906, Rogers & Gray is one of the top 10 independently-owned insurance agencies in Massachusetts and is approaching the status of being one of the top 100 in the United States. With a staff of more than 100 professionals, Rogers & Gray represents dozens of insurance companies on a direct relationship basis and has access to many others through brokerage arrangements.

**###

Contact: Lynn Mason-Small, Director of Advertising & Communications
508-760-4626; mason-smallly@rogersgray.com