Thanksgiving Dinner Offered to Less Fortunate

Rogers & Gray Insurance Agency will, for its 23rd year, be offering a complete Thanksgiving dinner to the area's less fortunate on the day before Thanksgiving.

Rogers & Gray employees, who gladly volunteer their time for this annual event, will serve a full-course turkey dinner, including an assortment of desserts, on Wednesday, Nov. 25 at the Hyannis Elks lodge on Bearses Way beginning at 2:30pm.

Children attending this dinner will receive small gifts.

Guests are invited to this dinner through communication with the Salvation Army, the NOAH Shelter, the Department of Children and Families, the Community Action Committee and Housing Assistance Corporation.

Everyone at Rogers & Gray wishes you and yours a very happy and healthy Thanksgiving season.
